

LOIS VOGT
2022 WOMAN OF THE YEAR

Lois Vogt has been selected as the 2022 St. Luke (LWML) Woman of the Year. Lois exemplifies the LWML motto, "Serve the Lord with gladness" through her cheerful attitude and ongoing willingness to assist others. She is known for her involvement in congregational ministry projects such as Youth, the St. Luke Homeless Shelter, and Vacation Bible School as well as LWML rallies and special events, including the annual Epiphany Brunch. Lois currently serves as our LWML Treasurer and participates in several Bible study groups. She and friends helped to start a neighborhood group, which lasted almost 10 years. Lois and her husband Mike have been members of a small group for several years. Lois and Mike took a short-term mission trip to Poland with MOST Ministries, where Lois has also volunteered to sort eyeglasses.
